

ART HISTORY AT THE TRITON
CITY OF ART
WITH CHIEF CURATOR, PRESTON METCALF
Thursdays, September 15-November 3, 2011

7:00 - 8:30pm

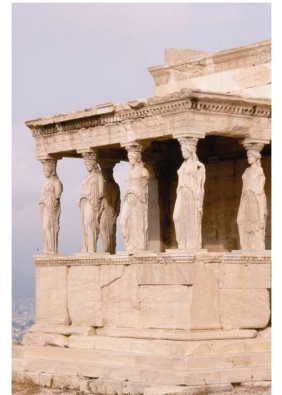

What happens when you take a little bit of Rick Steves, mix in a touch of Sister Wendy, and add a whole bunch of Chief Curator Preston Metcalf's excitement and scope of Art History? You get the Triton Museum of Art's next series of Art History lectures: City of Art.

Beginning September 15, and continuing through November 3, Thursday evenings from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m., the Triton Museum will present City of Art, a series of 8 lectures on cities whose art, history, politics, commerce, and culture have created destinations where the city itself has become a work of art. Join Preston as he takes you on armchair guided tours of the art and architecture of Renaissance Florence, Antonio Gaudí's Art Nouveau Barcelona, Bernini's Rome, imperial Kyoto, Neoclassical Washington D.C., Late Baroque Venice, classical Athens, and Medieval Paris.

Fee: TMA members $110, non-members $120
$20 drop-ins
